Note to the Teacher

These reproducible sheets are designed to help you as a storyteller. They do not take the place of the full text. Rather, in preparation to teach each story, read the full text carefully until you are familiar with it. Then use the key word sheets as a quick reference while telling the story to your group. So that you can use these sheets multiple times, you might place them back-to-back in clear plastic page protectors. The triangle (▶) indicates where to divide the narrative for the second session.

Front Cover

Children: "Tell . . . time almost eaten!"

"Hide up in tree . . . almost attacked with knife"

John Paton had many stories.

One face remembered most

John Paton: "Tell story . . . my father's"

Illustration #1

John Paton: "Born 1824 in father's house, Torthorwald, Scotland"

"Oldest of five sons, six daughters"

"Not fancy; little money"

"Big room; dining room, kitchen, living room and bedroom!"

"Other room; workshop; wove socks"

Illustration #2

"Room between, small closet"

"Father prayed there after meals"

Grandchild: "About what?"

John Paton: "Many things and for us"

"Know God and love Him"

"Knew God; smiled all the time"

Do you know God? Pray that you know that He loves you—made a way to be His child.

1 John 3:1: "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God."

Children saw same smile on John Paton's face

John Paton: "Gather family morning/evening; prayer and Bible reading"

"Prayed for people in faraway places"

Granddaughter: "Like islands you went?"

John Paton: "Used in my heart to want to go"
