Note to the Teacher

These reproducible sheets are designed to help you as a storyteller. They do not take the place of the full text. Rather, in preparation to teach each story, read the full text carefully until you are familiar with it. Then use the key word sheets as a quick reference while telling the story to your group. So that you can use these sheets multiple times, you might place them back-to-back in clear plastic page protectors.

Illustration #1

“Now our prisoners!”

“Tomorrow, march; tonight, pack.”

Marjie, ten; knew what words meant to her, others at Chefoo unable to leave

1942; since Pearl Harbor, danger

Real; wished parents there

3,000 miles away; missionaries in China

Couldn't see; knew loved

Tears but acted brave

Jim: “Come on. Get things.”

Packed; need to last next three years

Illustration #2

Next morning; journey to Weihsien POW camp

Sang while marching

“God is our refuge and strength,
In trouble a very present help.
Therefore we will not fear,
The Lord of Hosts is with us,
The God of Jacob is our refuge.”

Soldiers surprised?

Knew enemy defeated: “But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” (1 Corinthians 15:57)

Marjie remembered her mom’s words:
“God will never leave you or forsake you.”

Illustration #3

Finally arrived in Weihsien

Barbed wire, 8-foot-high walls, armed guards, electric fence, no escape

“For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;” (Romans 3:23)

“And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such
